

My Current Role and Responsibilities

MY CURRENT ROLE:

Current role:	Recovery Worker
Role Profile/Job Title:	Recovery Worker
Location:	Wakefield & District
My Manager:	Team Leader

SUPPORT/TRAINING:

- Full induction period with relevant e-learning applicable to role

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES I HAVE:

- Lead on women's specific work and issues within the Service and in partnerships.
- Hold a caseload of complex women with key knowledge of issues impacting women accessing substance misuse services and relevant support.
- Supporting women to help them make progress feel more stable and remain motivated to access current and future support and treatment.
- Building effective relationships with women; to encourage them to identify and respond to their needs, interests and personal development; and to provide guidance and support to enable them to deal with a wide range of issues affecting their lives.
- Agree and formulate individual Recovery Plans to ensure the promotion of choice and independence.
- Design and facilitate women's specific group work
- Providing continuous and consistent support to women, with a particular emphasis on motivation and engagement; practical issues (including family); relationships (with family, staff and peers); navigating and accessing services (including education and employment); and self-esteem and empowerment.
- Encouraging feedback from women using the service in order to promote quality assurance
- To work in close collaboration with referring organisations across all sectors
- With a specific lead for women in the service, you will champion the needs and treatment options for women and act as an expert for this Service User group.

WHAT I NEED (in addition to core role profile skills and competencies):

- This post is only open to female applicants. Schedule 9 Part 1 (1)(1)(a) of the Equality Act 2010 applies to this post.
- Proven track record in delivering women specific interventions.
- Full clean driving licence and access to a vehicle